

TOGETHER,
WE CAN DO MORE.

QUALITY YOU
CAN TRUST,
PARTNERSHIP
YOU CAN COUNT ON.

Your business depends on the quality of your work. At Axalta, we're committed to supporting you with the coatings, color matching and service you need to deliver superior results to your customers.

Partnering with Axalta is about more than just products and tools. It's about training that puts your employees first. It's about a distribution network that gets you the materials you need, when you need them. Most of all, it's about treating your business with the respect it deserves.

YOU'RE PASSIONATE ABOUT QUALITY. SO ARE WE.

You pride yourself on a job well done. That's why we've designed our products and tools to help you do great work. All of our refinish products are engineered for ease of use and reliability in a broad range of applications. Plus, our state-of-the-art color tools give you an exact match for any paint, solid or effect, no matter the vehicle's age.

With Axalta as your partner, you'll benefit from more than 150 years of experience developing, manufacturing and applying the most advanced coatings in the industry. In the lab and in the real world, we're focused on helping you excel.

KNOWLEDGE IS POWER.

At Axalta, training and support have always been top priorities. As our customer, you'll benefit from comprehensive training programs offered at 11 Axalta Learning and Development Centers, as well as online. We're dedicated to boosting the skill set of your team, while eliminating waste and reducing costs.

We'll also assign your shop a friendly, dedicated support team that's always available to answer your questions. We believe in doing the job once, with precision and accuracy. We'll help you do the same.

NO DISRUPTIONS. NO WORRIES.

Transitioning to a new coatings system can be intimidating. Not with Axalta. We have a proven track record of upgrading shops of all sizes. Our expertise, resources and four-step conversion process will make it easy for you.

A successful conversion means no disruptions or lost business. From planning and equipment installation to training and follow-up, we've fine-tuned the process of getting your shop up to speed.

THE MATERIALS YOU NEED, WHEN YOU NEED THEM.

Partnering with Axalta also means having access to our extensive network of distributors. Our partners bring a unique combination of local market knowledge and the logistics to deliver the volume, consistency and peace of mind you deserve.

It means you'll have the products when you need them, so you can get the job done-and get your customers back on the road as soon as possible.
